A LEVEL & APPLIED LAW

It's Official!
Clarendon Sixth Form College
is a 'Good' college

There is so much more to Law than being a Solicitor or a Barrister. Law influences our everyday life in so many ways, from buying a can of pop from your local shop to how you go about your social and professional interactions.

A Level Law at Clarendon will prepare you for a future career in Law, but it doesn't stop there. Studying Law will assist in many areas, such business studies, working in a human resources department and any employed or self employed positions.

Here at Clarendon you will study;

- English Courts System
- Legal Personnel (Lawyers, Judges, Magistrates and Juries)
- Sources of Law (Common Law and Statute Law)
- Criminal law (Theft, Robbery, Murder)
- Law of Torts (Occupiers Liability, Nuisance, Negligence)
- Contract Law - how law influences our society
- Legal Aid and Funding

Courses available:

A Level Law (OCR)
Applied Law (1 x A level equivalent)

Learning experience:

In addition to lessons, students will engage in;

- Court visits
- Barrister and Solicitor guest speakers
  - Mooting sessions
- Work experience in local Solicitors.

Progression routes:

Many students progress to study Law at University but a qualification in Law can also open study routes in Business Studies and Criminology.

A qualification in law is well regarded at all Universities and can open doors to any potential degree. In addition there are apprenticeships available in the Insurance sector as well as in the legal sector.

There are also other routes to becoming a Lawyer such as becoming a legal Executive, again a qualification in Law will enable you to start higher up on the progression ladder
